

How do we write a story which includes a series of unfortunate events?

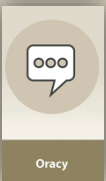

Character

I will have the confidence to express myself confidently and accurately.

Being a writer

Oracy-

I will rehearse, edit and critique my sentences to ensure they have the impact I want on my reader. I will read my finished story with expression and intonation.

Reading

I will read and study texts similar to those that I am going to write, to learn from their language and structure.

Writing-

I will plan and write a carefully structured story which is well-structured and well-paced.

Developing as a learner

I can use the 'y' map to create a clearer picture about people, places and events.

Outcome - We will write our own story inspired by 'A Series of Unfortunate Events' written by Lemony Snicket.
